

LOT #7

WINES FROM THE WAR YEARS

Uncork ageless beauty with Pete Richmond and Kelli White

Savor history with esteemed vineyard manager and 2019 Napa Valley Grower of the Year Pete Richmond.

Eight victorious bidders will taste through history, relishing 80-85-year-old wines produced during World War II in Europe.

Appreciate these ageless beauties over a sumptuous chef's dinner at Meadowood paired with wartime wines carefully guided by world-renowned sommelier and wine educator, Kelli White. An unmatched opportunity to taste wines from Europe for this special dinner.

- Grower host: Pete Richmond, Napa Valley Grap growers Vice President, 2019 Grower of the Year, and Partner, Silverado Farming Company
- Perfect pairings led by Kelli White, America's greatest wine educator, author, and Director of Education for the Wine Center at Meadowood
- Supreme selection of wines only acquired in single bottle quantities.
 - Egly-Ouriet Blanc de Noirs Les Crayères Grand Cru Vieilles Vignes - Sparkling
 - 1945 Leroy Meursault Charmes 1er Cru - White
 - 1939 Domaine Faiveley Vosne-Romanée Les Suchots 1er Cru - Red
 - 1941 Domaine des Lambreys Clos des Lambrays Grand Cru - Red
 - 1942 Thomas-Bassot Ruchottes-Chambertin Grand Cru - Red
 - 1943 Domaine de La Romanée-Conti Grand-Échezeaux Grand Cru - Red
 - 1945 Château Léoville Barton Saint-Julien (English-bottled) - Red
 - 1945 Château de la Tour Clos-Vougeot Grand Cru - Red
 - 1945 Domaine Huët Vouvray "Le Haut-Lieu" Moelleux - Sweet
 - 1941 Cossart Gordon Bual Madeira - Sweet
- Tantalizing chef's dinner in the private dining room at Meadowood's new restaurant, Forum
- Premium car transportation to and from Napa location
- Commemorative take-home gifts
- Date: Thursday, August 22, 2024

Bidding starts at $25,000 per person. Limited to 8 guests.

CONSIDERATIONS: Transportation within the Napa Valley. Wines acquired in single-bottle quantities; though the utmost care was taken in their procurement, condition is not guaranteed.

THANK YOU: Pete Richmond, Silverado Farming Company